

Some of Our Successful Consignment Authors:

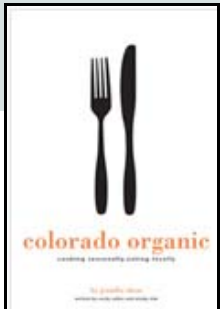

Made In Hungary By Maria Krenz

Krenz's memoir of her childhood in Nazi-occupied and then Communist Hungary sings praise to the unfailing goodness that shapes even tragedy.

The Astral Imperative By Robert Dresner

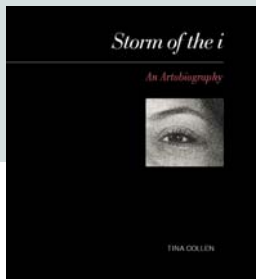

A remarkable journey across the galaxy begins in 2037 as Earth emerges from a ruinous decade of war and terrorist activity, in this work of visionary fiction.

Colorado Organic By Jennifer Olson

Discover new recipes from brilliant Colorado chefs that feature local and seasonal food. Olson brings together local chefs and farmers in a beautiful story of the state's bounty.

Storm of the I: an Artobiography By Tina Collen

"Collen's slick, clever, refreshingly unpredictable labor of love is like no other book you're likely to read any time soon." —Clay Evans, Daily Camera

Tips For a Successful Consignment

- Encourage your friends, family, and other contacts to purchase your book at the Boulder Book Store or through our website.
- Contact your local media and mailing lists to let them know that the book is available at Boulder Book Store.
- Send out press releases, review copies and other promotional materials.
- Get involved with bookclubs, libraries and other community organizations. Greater success comes from a wide array of author-coordinated promotion.

Boulder Book Store Consignment Program

Why Consignment?

Consignment allows the Boulder Book Store to carry and feature a much wider variety of self-published and print-on-demand titles than we could through traditional purchasing. We are able to devote more time and expertise to these titles and assist authors in selling more books.

Boulder Book Store Consignment Policy

General Policy Information

- Boulder Book Store will not pay more than 60% for a consignment.
- The basic handling fee for consignment books is $25.
- Boulder Book Store will initially take 5 copies of the book.
- Boulder Book Store agrees to display books left here on a consignment basis for 3 months.
- During that period, Boulder Book Store may contact the consignor to request additional quantities for sale, and/or to pay the consignor for items already sold.
- At the end of the consignment period, Boulder Book Store will send any unsold books and any payment accrued from book sales to an address that the consignor provides.
- Boulder Book Store will dispose of books left for more than 6 months without a valid return address.
- Boulder Book Store will only pay for items that were sold. Damaged or stolen items are the sole financial responsibility of the consignor.

Additional Promotional Packages:

For $75 we will:

- Feature your book for at least two weeks on a Main Floor display
Please note it takes 3-4 weeks to be placed on the Main Floor display

For $125 we will:

- Feature your book for at least two weeks on a Main Floor display
- Feature your book in our email newsletter
- Present your book on the Local Favorites page of our website for at least 60 days
- Enable people to buy online for the entire time your book is in stock at the store

Please note it takes 4-6 weeks to be in the email newsletter & featured on our website.

For $225 we will:

- Offer everything in the $125 package PLUS a book signing event with 2-3 other local authors.

You must provide:

- 10 copies of your book
- Critical review or description of your book in approximately 50 words.
- JPEG image of the book cover

Note about the fees: The Boulder Book Store handles hundreds of consignments per year. These fees allow us to continue to accept all of the professionally-produced, self-published books from our local authors. Through this program, consignors now have the same promotional opportunities that traditional publishers enjoy at the Boulder Book Store.
